Component Mission

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- This position resides in the Middle East Group of the Directorate of Strategic Operational Planning (DSOP). Major duties and responsibilities include:
- Develop and integrate counterterrorism strategy and planning efforts for the Middle East, in coordination and collaboration with other U.S. Government agencies.
- Identify gaps and impediments that hinder implementation of regional CT strategies, plans, and policies, and develop solid and well-researched recommendations designed to reduce these gaps.
- Prepare and present briefings, reports, and presentations for National Counterterrorism Center leadership, senior policymakers, National Security Council staff, and other U.S. Government officials in a manner that meets their specified requirements.
- Foster interagency and cross-directorate collaboration on programs and objectives.
- Share information within NCTC and with other government departments and agencies, and effectively build and leverage diverse and collaborative networks within these organizations.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Knowledge and experience with strategy development, planning processes, and the integrated application of all instruments of national power to protect the U.S. and its interests abroad.
- Experience with coordinating and collaborating with multiple U.S. government departments and agencies.

L E A D I N G I N T E L L I G E N C E I N T E G R A T I O N

- Experience with developing innovative and flexible solutions for complex cross-organizational issues, taking initiative, and making key contributions to group efforts.
- Demonstrated interpersonal, organizational, and problem-solving skills, including an ability to work effectively both independently and in a team or collaborative environment.
- Ability to communicate complex information clearly, concisely, and in a manner that is targeted to and meets the needs of diverse audiences, to include senior-level policymakers.

Desired Requirements

- Knowledge of/experience working with the Middle East region, especially on counterterrorism or other security issues. Experience can come from military deployments to the region, graduate school studies, significant undergraduate college focus, or other work experience.
- Knowledge of terrorism/counterterrorism, and experience working with the US Government CT community.
